Enrollment Now Open at Tuition-Free Online Public School Insight School of Michigan for 2024-2025 School Year

2/23/2024

Enrollment is now open for students aged 16-22 looking for a personalized approach to learning

LANSING, Mich.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Enrollment is now open at Insight School of Michigan (ISMI), a full-time online public school with Michigan-certified teachers powered by Stride K12. The open enrollment period — available to students anywhere in the state — begins on Feb. 22.

“ISMI is committed to helping students in Michigan achieve their highest potential through a high-quality education,” said Teresa Boardman, head of school at ISMI. “We guide students down the path toward success on their educational journey, offering a personalized curriculum, flexibility and support along the way.”

Drawing from decades of experience in online education, ISMI offers high-quality instruction that meets state standards and is personalized to each student. The school also offers in-person events and frequent touchpoints to help students stay connected in a digital learning environment.

ISMI offers students aged 16-22 seeking a high school degree a path to success through alternative education. The school offers social and emotional learning programs, flexible scheduling, credit recovery, personalized career paths and access to live teacher support in the evenings.
