NEWS RELEASE

Indiana Choice Scholarship Program Provides Financial Assistance to K12-Powered Private Schools

2/29/2024

INDIANAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- K12, a national leader in online education, is pleased to share that applications for the Indiana Choice Scholarship Program, administered by the Indiana Department of Education, will open on March 1 for the 2024-2025 school year.

Approximately 96% of Hoosier families are eligible for the Indiana Choice Scholarship Program, which offers a vital opportunity for students to access financial aid, pathways to quality education, equal opportunities, and a superior learning experience.

The scholarship collectivity served an impressive 35,698 Hoosier students according to the organization's website. Participating K12 virtual private schools include FaithPrep Academy of Indiana, GEO Focus Academy of Indiana, and Marian University Preparatory School.

A free on-demand webinar provided by K12 offers a deep dive into the powerful resource for students and families interested in applying.
