A CHORUS CALL COMPANY

- What's driving change in the IR profession?
- What are the new pathways to ensure professional success in IR?
- How can we shape our future as trusted strategic advisors?

Gary LaBranche
NIRI President & CEO

Since assuming NIRI's helm in 2017, Gary LaBranche has been future-focused. So, it's not surprising that on its 50th anniversary, NIRI launched the Think Tank on the Future of Investor Relations.

One of its members, Tim Sedabres, head of Investor Relations for TCF Bank, joins Gary to discuss the Think Tank's work to identify the forces driving change in our profession; analyze a range of preferred futures; and reach consensus on taking action now to elevate the IR professional to trusted strategic advisor. In setting this path forward, they also laid out the competencies to achieve the vision. NIRI's report inspires thought and dialogue. This session promises to do the same!
