Forward-looking statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements about First Commonwealth's future plans, strategies and financial performance. These statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts and often include words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate" or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could" or "may." Such statements are based on assumptions and involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. Factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

- Local, regional, national and international economic conditions and the impact they may have on First Commonwealth and its customers;
- volatility and disruption in national and international financial markets;
- the effects of and changes in trade and monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including the interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board;
- inflation, interest rate, commodity price, securities market and monetary fluctuations;
- the effect of changes in laws and regulations (including laws and regulations concerning taxes, banking, securities and insurance) with which First Commonwealth must comply;
- the soundness of other financial institutions;
- political instability;
- impairment of First Commonwealth's goodwill or other intangible assets;
- acts of God or of war or terrorism;
- the timely development and acceptance of new products and services and perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- changes in consumer spending, borrowings and savings habits;
- changes in the financial performance and/or condition of First Commonwealth's borrowers;
- technological changes;
- acquisitions and integration of acquired businesses;
- First Commonwealth's ability to attract and retain qualified employees;
- changes in the competitive environment in First Commonwealth's markets and among banking organizations and other financial service providers;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- the effect of changes in accounting policies and practices, as may be adopted by the regulatory agencies, as well as the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the Financial Accounting Standards Board and other accounting standard setters;
- the reliability of First Commonwealth's vendors, internal control systems or information systems;
- the costs and effects of legal and regulatory developments, the resolution of legal proceedings or regulatory or other governmental inquiries, the results of regulatory examinations or reviews and the ability to obtain required regulatory approvals; and
- other risks and uncertainties described in the reports that First Commonwealth files with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. First Commonwealth undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

- Net income of $12.5 million increased by $2.4 million compared to linked quarter (LQ) and decreased $1.7 million year-over-year (YoY)
- Maintained positive operating leverage YoY in that revenue growth outstripped growth in operating expenses
- Net interest income increased by $0.6 million to LQ primarily as a result of strong commercial loan growth and expansion in the net interest margin
- Fee income decreased $0.7 million to LQ primarily due to a $0.4 million decrease in service charges on deposit accounts and card-related interchange income as a result of seasonal fluctuations

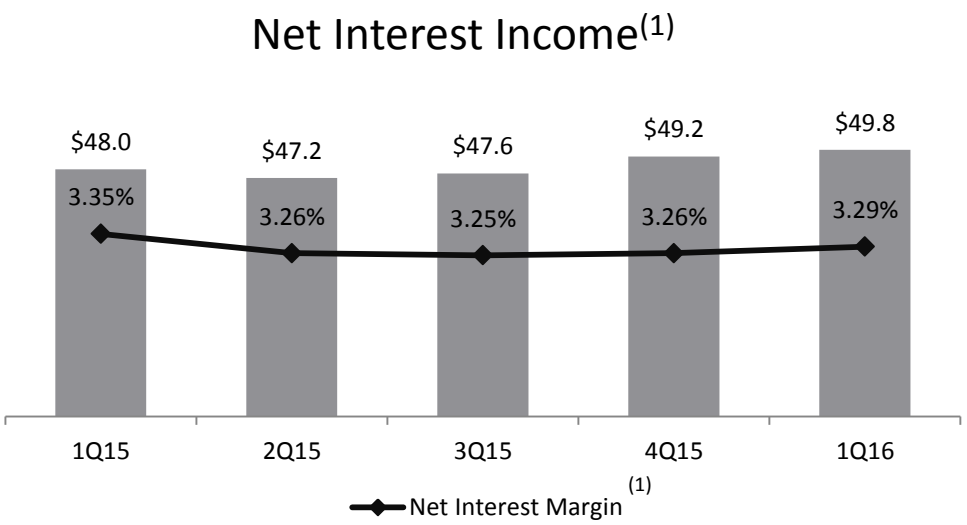
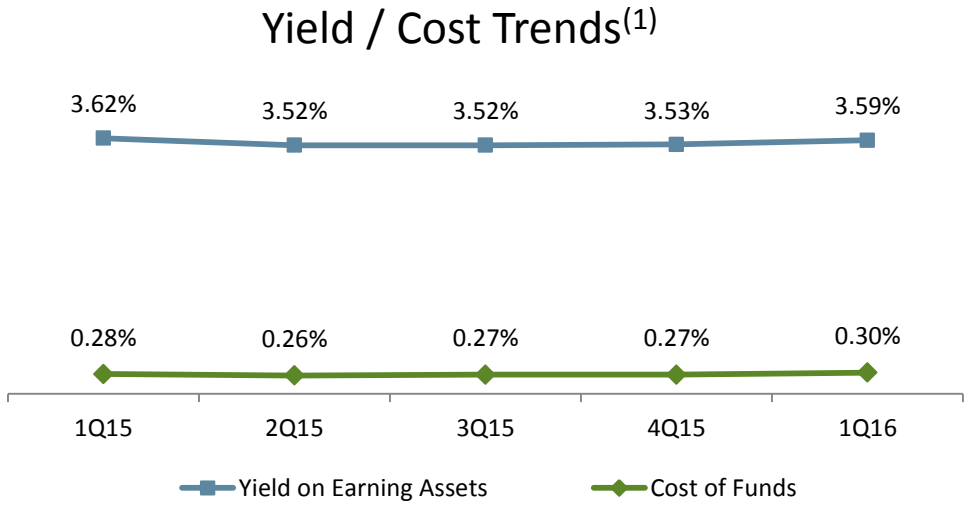
- End-of-period loans increased $115 million compared to LQ primarily due to $110 million growth in Commercial Real Estate (CRE) and Construction as well as $39 million growth in Commercial and Industrial (C&I) balances
- Total deposits increased $106 million from LQ due to growth in core savings and demand account balances
- Noninterest bearing demand deposits increased $116 million, or 11.2%, YoY and currently comprise 27% of total deposits

$ in millions

Net interest income and net interest margin



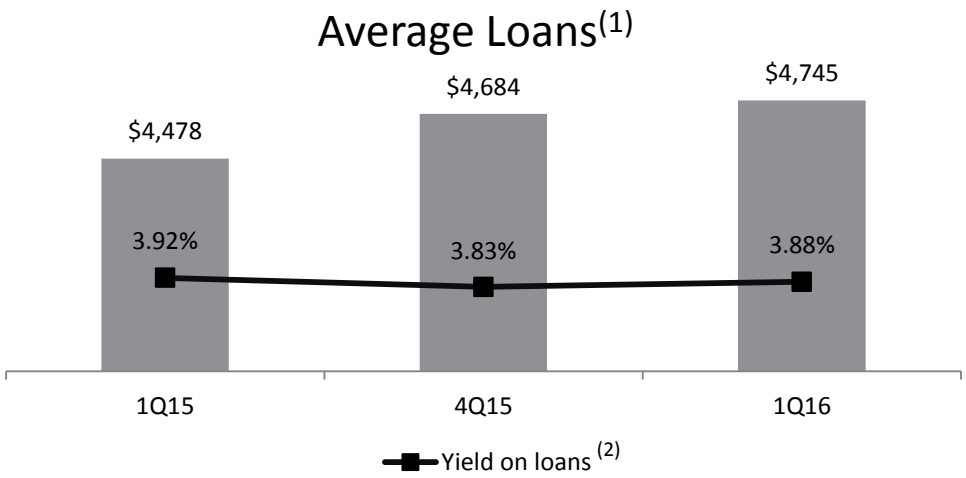


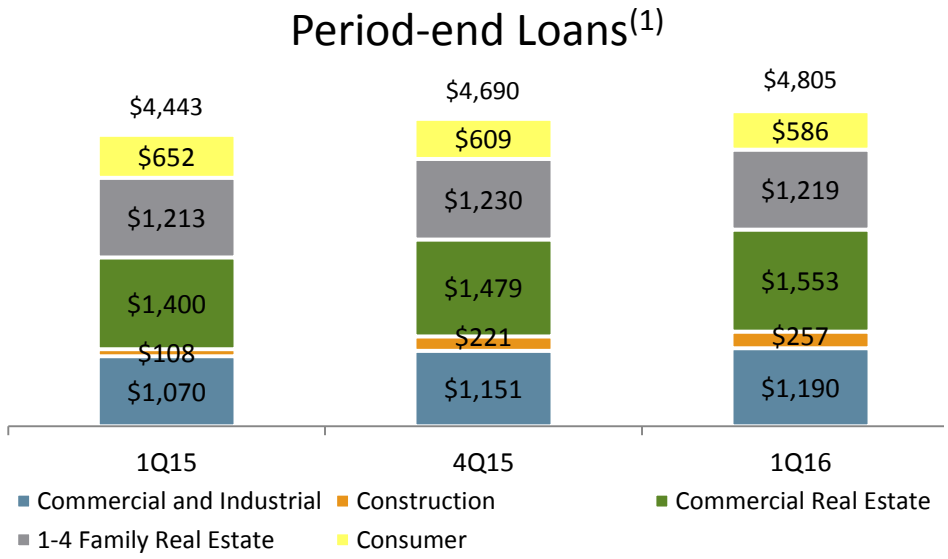
- Net interest income increased $0.6 million compared to LQ primarily due to strong commercial loan growth and expansion in the net interest margin
- Net interest margin of 3.29% increased 3bps over LQ due to:
  - Higher yields on loans and investments, offset somewhat by higher borrowing costs
  - Replacement yields were relatively neutral
- Average interest earning assets increased $96 million over LQ due to:
  - Average loan growth of $61 million
  - Average investment securities growth of $35 million

(1) Taxable equivalent

$ in millions

Loans





Average

- Average loans grew $61 million, or 5.2% on an annualized basis
- Yield on loans of 3.88% increased 5bps from LQ
  - Benefit of the rise in short-term rates in December 2015

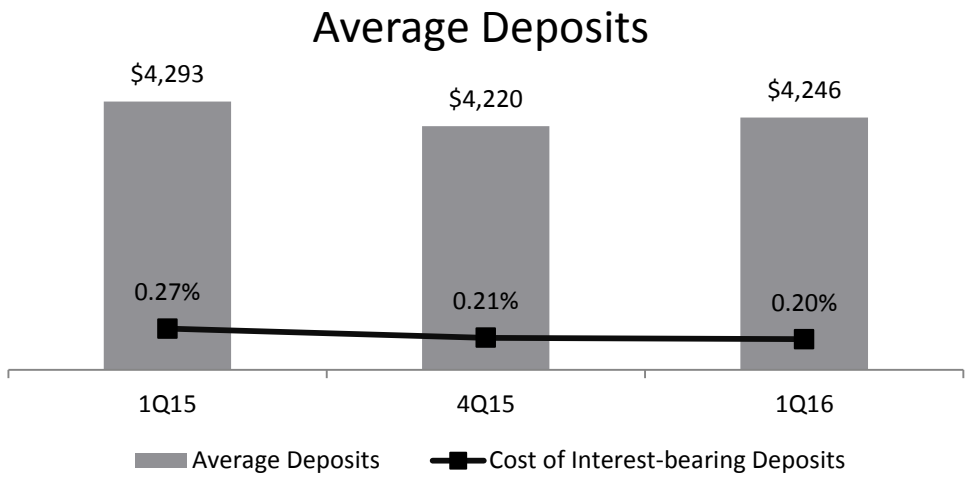
Period-end

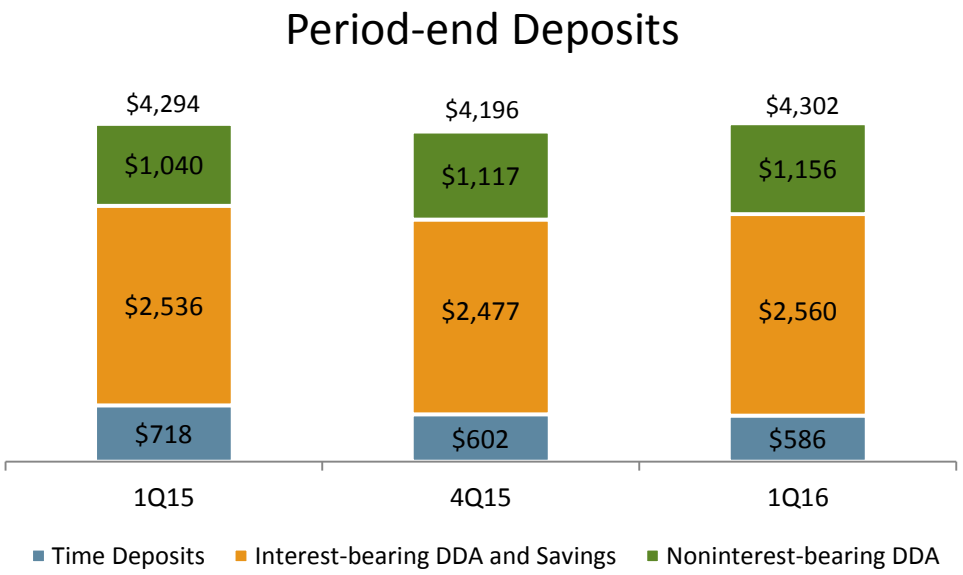
- Loans increased $115 million to LQ and $362 million from the prior year driven by:
  - Commercial loan growth, with Ohio markets growing $50 million LQ and $204 million YoY
  - Year-over-year growth includes $58 million of loans acquired with the First Community Bank acquisition in 4Q15

(1) Includes loans held for sale
(2) Taxable equivalent yield

$ in millions

Deposits





Average

- Average deposits increased $26 million over LQ and decreased $47 million YoY, including the addition of $90 million in deposits acquired through the First Community Bank Acquisition in 4Q15
- Year-over-year runoff was driven by the intentional runoff of higher-cost brokered time deposits in 2015 which were relatively flat to LQ and decreased $118 million YoY
- Cost of interest-bearing deposits of 0.20% decreased 1bps over LQ

Period-end

- Total deposits increased $106 million over LQ and increased $8 million YoY, including the addition of $89 million in deposits acquired through the First Community Bank Acquisition in 4Q15
- Year-over-year runoff was due in part to the intentional runoff of higher-cost brokered time deposits in 2015
- Noninterest bearing demand deposits increased $116 million YoY and currently comprise 27% of total deposits

Total noninterest expense	38.1	43.1	39.9	(5.0)	(1.8)

$ in millions

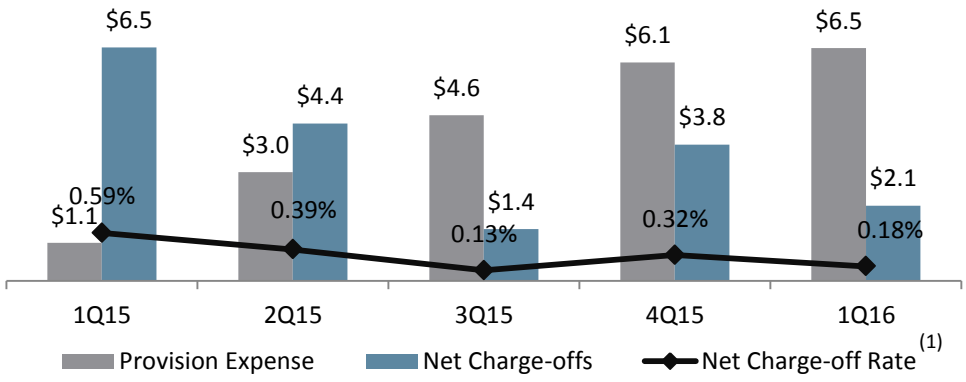
- Total noninterest expense decreased $5.0 million to LQ driven by three nonrecurring items in 4Q15:
  - $2.1 million of one-time severance charges for the realignment of our consumer businesses
  - $0.9 million of one-time expenses related to the acquisition of First Community Bank
  - $0.4 million related to the disposition of two former headquarter bank facilities
- Salaries and benefits, excluding one-time severances in 4Q15, increased $1.0 million to LQ primarily due to higher incentives
- Occupancy costs are down $0.4 million YoY due to lower snow removal and utilities costs
- Operational losses decreased $0.8 million YoY due to abnormally high debit card fraud losses related to merchant breaches in 1Q15
- Other operating expenses included $0.5 million write-down of two ORE properties in LQ

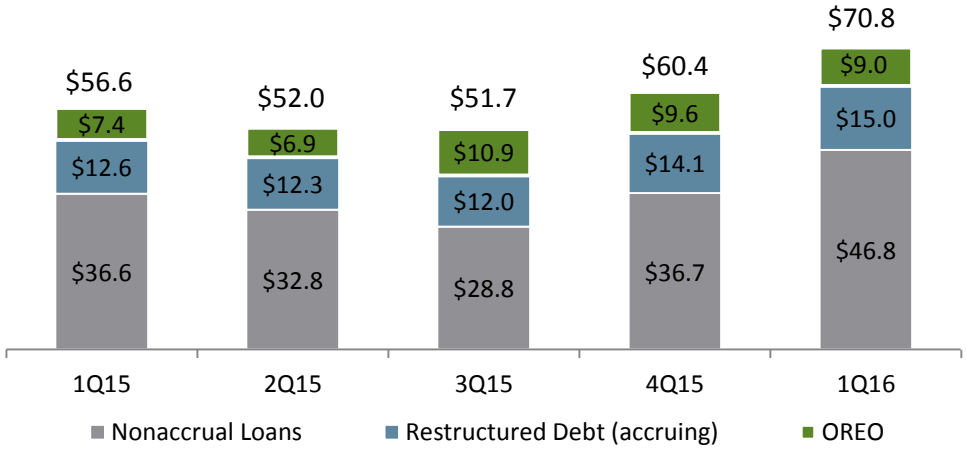
(1) Efficiency ratio is calculated as noninterest expense as a percentage of net interest income, on a fully taxable equivalent basis, and total noninterest income, excluding net securities gains and losses

Credit quality

Provision Expense and Net Charge-offs



Nonperforming Assets

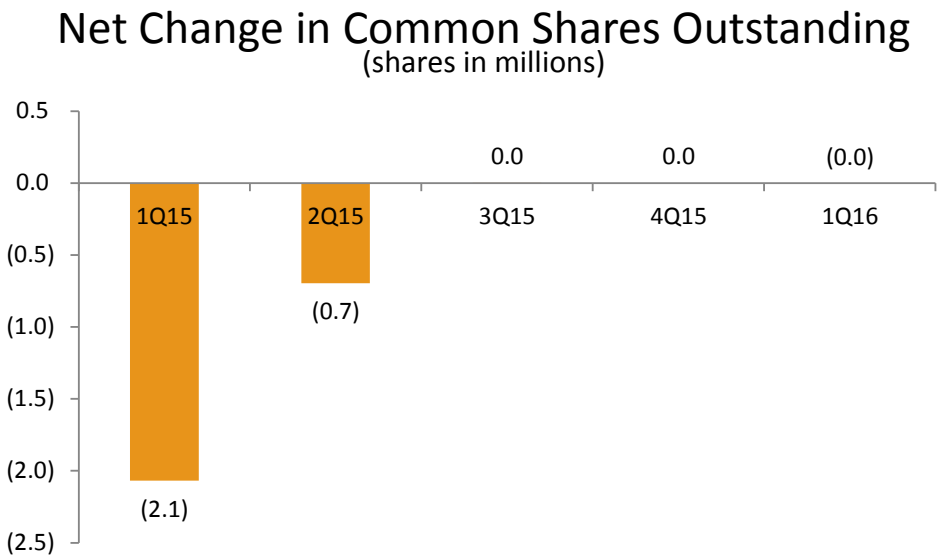


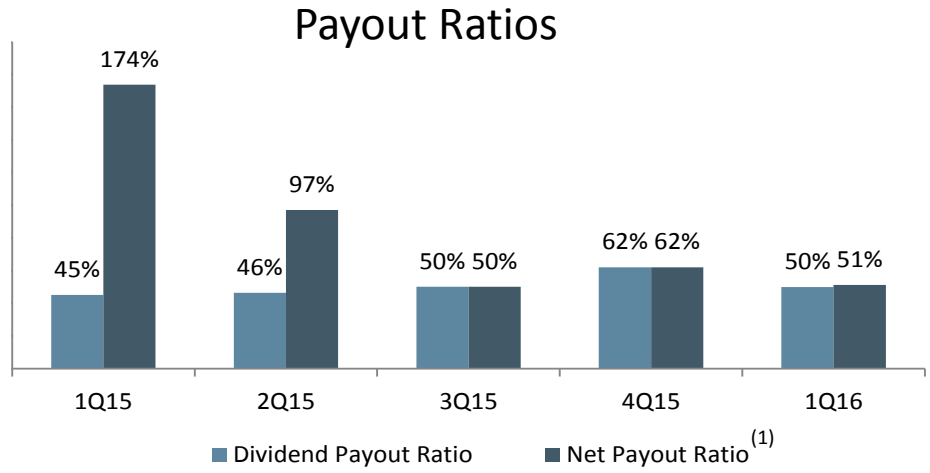
- Provision expense of $6.5 million increased $0.4 million to LQ due to the establishment of $6.0 million in a specific reserve for a steel servicing company that was placed into nonperforming status in 1Q16
- Net charge-offs in 1Q16 included a $1.1 million charge-off of a previously established reserve for an energy company that was classified as nonaccrual in 3Q13
- Nonperforming loans (nonaccrual loans plus restructured accruing debt) increased $11.0 million to LQ primarily as a result of the $11.5 million loan to the aforementioned steel servicing company

(1) Net charge-offs as a percentage of period-to-date average loans, annualized

$ in millions

Capital Return





- Average shares outstanding were relatively unchanged compared to LQ
  - Announced a $25 million share repurchase program in 1Q 2016
  - 19,447 shares were repurchased during 1Q16 at an average price of $8.42 per share

- Strong capital levels allow us to continue to return capital to shareholders
  - Returned $0.2 million in share buybacks to shareholders in 1Q16
  - Returned $6.2 million in dividends to shareholders in 1Q16
  - Dividend payout ratio expected to remain in the 40%-60% range

(1) Net payout ratio represents common stock dividends and share repurchases less share issuances and stock compensation-related items, divided by net income attributable to common stock.
