Thank you for another great year!

December 30, 2009

Bethesda, Md. – As the holidays wind down and we approach the beginning of a new year, we at Hanger would like to express our appreciation for our patients, customers, employees, partners, and every one of you who make our jobs so rewarding. We consider ourselves blessed to work in a profession that restores mobility and personal independence. We are fortunate to see people thriving and overcoming incredible odds every day. Thank you for being a part of the Hanger community. We wish you and your families a happy and healthy 2010!
