To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any actions taken by the Committee during any period in which any member (or members) fails for any reason to satisfy the foregoing membership requirements shall nevertheless be duly authorized actions of the Committee for all corporate purposes.
- c. Chair. The chairperson of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board.
- d. Removal and Replacement. Committee members may be removed or replaced, and any vacancies on the Committee shall be filled, by the Board.

3. Committee Structure and Operations

- d. Minutes. Minutes shall be prepared for each meeting of the Committee, which minutes shall be submitted to the Committee for review and approval.
- e. Self-Evaluation; Assessment of Charter. The Committee shall participate in an annual performance self-evaluation in conjunction with the Board annual self-evaluation. The Committee shall conduct an annual assessment of the adequacy of this charter and recommend any changes to the Board.

4. Duties and Responsibilities

- a. The Committee shall identify and recommend to the Board nominees for election or reelection to the Board, or for appointment to fill any vacancy that is anticipated or has arisen on the Board, in accordance with the Company's corporate governance guidelines and this charter. The Committee shall report to the Board periodically on the status of these efforts. The Committee shall review candidates for the Board recommended by stockholders pursuant to the procedures described in the Company's proxy statement. The invitation to join the Board shall be extended by the Chairperson of the Board after the appointment is approved by the Board.
- b. The Committee shall seek to establish and maintain a Board that is strong in its collective diversity and range of talent, skills, background, experience and expertise, including with respect to finance, research and development, commercialization, sales, distribution, leadership, technologies and industry knowledge. The Committee shall review with the Board, on at least an annual basis, the current composition of the Board in light of the characteristics of independence, skills, experience, diversity and availability of service to the Company of its members, and of anticipated needs. When considering whether a current director should continue their service on the Board and/or any of its committees, the Committee may consider any factors it deems appropriate, including such director's record of service, including attendance record, meeting preparation, and overall contribution to the Board and/or committee. As the Committee deems necessary or appropriate, it may retain a third party to assist it in identifying or evaluating any potential nominees for director. When the Committee reviews a potential new candidate, it may consider specifically the candidate's qualifications in light of the needs of the Board at that time given the then-current mix of director attributes.
- c. Following a significant change in a director's principal occupation, the Committee has the authority to assess, as appropriate and in light of then-current Board policies, the continued services of such director on the Board and/or its committees.
- d. The Committee shall identify and recommend to the Board, after consultation with, and input from, the Chairperson of the Board, the directors to serve as members of the Audit and Finance Committee, the Compensation and Talent Development Committee, the Compliance and Ethics Committee, and this Committee. In addition, the Committee shall recommend to the Board, after consultation with, and input from, the Chairperson of the Board, a member of each of the aforementioned committees to serve as chairperson.
- e. The Committee has the authority to establish policies for new director orientation and for the further education of continuing directors.
- f. The Committee has the authority to conduct a review of director's affiliations and transactions that could raise conflict-of-interest issues.
- g. The Committee shall periodically review the size and structure of the Board and its committees.

- h. The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines for the Board. The Committee shall review these guidelines on a periodic basis and recommend to the Board any changes deemed necessary or desirable.
- i. The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board a performance evaluation process for the Board and its committees. The Committee shall oversee the process by which the Board and its committees conduct performance self-evaluations.
- j. The Committee shall review regularly with the Chairperson of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company the succession plans relating to senior management positions and shall make recommendations to the Board with respect to such succession plans. The Committee also has the authority to assist the Board and the Chief Executive Officer in developing and evaluating potential executive candidates.
- k. The Committee shall oversee and review periodically management's strategy and approach toward environmental, social and governance matters and shall make recommendations to the Board or take action with respect to such matters, as appropriate. The Committee shall also consider these matters in conjunction and coordination with the Audit and Finance Committee's oversight of the Company's enterprise risk management program.

The foregoing list of duties is not exhaustive, and the Committee may, in addition, perform such other functions as may be necessary or appropriate for the performance of its duties. The Committee shall have the power to delegate its authority and duties to subcommittees or individual members of the Committee as it deems appropriate.

The Committee shall have full access to all Company books, records, facilities and personnel. The Committee may request any person (including any other director of the Company, any officer or employee of the Company or any advisor to the Company) to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any member (or members) of the Committee. The Committee may retain search firms or advisors to identify director candidates and may also retain counsel or other advisors, in its sole discretion. The Committee shall be given the resources, and shall determine the funding requirements, for the payment of compensation to such search firms and any advisers employed by the Committee, and the payment of the ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate such search firms or advisors and to review and approve such search firms' or advisors' fees and other retention terms.
