

Alabama Virtual Academy at Eufaula City Schools Enrollment for 2024-2025 School Year Opens

2/22/2024

EUFULA, Ala.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Enrollment for the 2024-2025 school year is now open at Alabama Virtual Academy at Eufaula City Schools (ALVA), an online public school serving K-12th grade students throughout the state.

Staffed by state-licensed teachers, ALVA offers a personalized approach to learning and provides an online learning curriculum designed for students who need alternative pathways to education. Students have virtual and in-person social opportunities with their peers throughout the school year.

"Students come to ALVA for a variety of reasons, including advanced education opportunities, a bullying-free environment, and the control over their time to engage in outside activities or medical needs while focusing on academics," said Melanie Barkley, ALVA's Executive Director. "ALVA gives students the opportunity to receive their education in a supportive environment and at a pace that fits their learning style."

For most parents, the new school year comes with cautious optimism. Students choose online learning for a variety of reasons, including advanced learning, a bullying-free environment, and the flexibility to support extracurricular pursuits or medical needs while maintaining a focus on academics. ALVA's online platform gives students the opportunity to pursue their academic goals in a supportive environment and at an appropriate pace for their learning style.

To learn more about ALVA and how to enroll, visit alva.k12.com or download the Stride K12 mobile app for iOS and Android devices - where families can enroll, prepare for the first day of school, and monitor students' academic progress throughout the school year.
