

Enrollment Now Open at Tuition-Free Online Public School Minnesota Virtual Academy for 2024-2025 School Year

2/26/2024

Enrollment is now open for K-12 students looking for a personalized approach to learning

HOUSTON, Minn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Enrollment is now open at Minnesota Virtual Academy (MNVA), a full-time online public school with Minnesota-certified teachers powered by Stride K12. The open enrollment period — available to students anywhere in the state — begins on Feb. 26.

“MNVA offers students a personalized path to finding success during school and after,” said Mary Morem, head of school at MNVA. “With career-focused classes and an inclusive and accessible digital learning environment, we’re committed to helping students discover their passion and thrive post-education.”

Directly overseen by the Houston Public School District to meet state standards, MNVA draws on decades of experience in online education to offer high-quality education personalized to each student. Students at MNVA can choose from programs, including full or part-time schooling and partnerships with brick-and-mortar public schools and community groups.

MNVA tailors their K-12 programs to each student’s needs with opportunities for college-level courses and career pathways. MNVA specializes in setting students up for long-term success in fields such as agriculture, art, education, health science, marketing, manufacturing and skilled trades.
