Enrollment is now open for students grade 9-12 looking for a personalized approach to learning

MAUMEE, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Enrollment is now open at Ohio Digital Learning School (ODLS), a full-time online public school with Ohio-certified teachers powered by Stride K12. The open enrollment period — available to students anywhere in the state — begins on Feb. 22.

“An online education from ODLS sets students up for success through a personalized approach to learning, tailored to each student’s goals, whether employment, enlistment or enrollment,” said Dr. Brian Powderly, head of school at ODLS. “We provide students a safe, accessible and inclusive environment to grow as learners.”

Drawing on decades of experience in online education, ODLS offers individualized, high-quality instruction that meets state standards. The school also offers in-person events and provides touchpoints to help students stay connected in a digital learning environment.

ODLS serves students across Ohio tackling grades 9-12. In addition to providing high-quality education for students aged 16-21, ODLS also offers credit recovery to help students catch up and a College Credit Plus program allowing students to earn college and high school credits at the same time. Students also have the option to earn their OhioMeansJobs-Readiness seal.
