Graduating Students Report More than $7.5 Million in Scholarships

ASHBURN, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The George Washington University Online High School (GWUOHS) will celebrate the Class of 2021, and the full-time online private school's 10th anniversary, during a virtual commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 26, 2021.

The ceremony will recognize the 74 GWUOHS students worldwide who comprise the school's largest-ever graduating class. Collectively, the Class of 2021 reports that it has been offered more than $7.5 million in scholarships and awards from a number of higher education institutions and organizations.

Members of the graduating class report having been accepted to colleges and universities around the world, including Boston University, Cornell College, Miami University (Ohio), Michigan State University, New York University, Rice University, Spelman College, University of Pennsylvania, and University of Southern California.

"Our graduating students have faced a year unlike any other with the determination to succeed and accomplish this important milestone," said Alison Mistretta, Head of School at GWUOHS. "I am excited to see what the next chapter holds for these talented students as they pursue their dreams. There is no doubt in my mind that they will be leaders who make an impact no matter where they go next."

GWUOHS is an online college preparatory academy for students in grades 8-12. Students enroll from across the U.S. and around the world, receiving a rigorous, personalized education. The school's curriculum is completed by a unique Journey's Symposium, which promotes self-awareness, leadership, service, and personal success.

To celebrate the 10th anniversary of GWUOHS, the guest speakers for the ceremony will include both student speakers and an alumnus. In addition, students will be recognized with awards for their leadership, academic excellence, and community contributions.
