

How Can You “Spot the Difference” in Online School? Go With One That Has Experience! Washington Virtual Academies-Omak Now Accepting Enrollments for 2021-2022

3/4/2021

TACOMA, Wash.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- After an academic year like no other, Washington Virtual Academies-Omak (WAVA), a full-time online public-school academy serving K-12 students throughout the state, is welcoming students to enroll for the 2021-2022 school year.

WAVA is the state leader in providing safe, alternative education options, while giving your student a personalized experience and providing them with what they need to succeed.

WAVA is tuition-free to all students who reside in Washington, staffed by state-licensed teachers, and is an authorized online public-school program of the Omak School District. They offer a personalized approach to learning, delivering rich, engaging curriculum designed to assist students who seek alternative pathways to education.

“Parents only want their children to be successful and WAVA can provide them with that opportunity,” said Summer Shelton, Head of School. “There’s no doubt this past school year was unlike any other, but our technology and student-focused curriculum will give your children the advantage they need to do well at the next level.”

Students choose online school for a variety of reasons including advanced learning, a bullying-free environment, and the ability to support extracurricular pursuits or medical needs. WAVA’s online platform gives students the opportunity to pursue their academic goals in a supportive environment and at an appropriate pace for their learning style.

WAVA is now accepting enrollments for the 2021-2022 school year. Families are encouraged to attend an online information session hosted by the school. More information, how to enroll, and a schedule of upcoming events can be found at <https://wava.k12.com/>.
