

Insight School of Minnesota Celebrates Commencement with Online Ceremony

6/10/2021

BROOKLYN CENTER, Minn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Insight School of Minnesota (ISMN) will celebrate the Class of 2021 during a commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 12th, 2021.

Collectively, the Class of 2021 – which includes more than 95 graduates – reports it has been accepted to trade schools, colleges and universities across the country, including: Anoka Technical College, North Dakota State University, St. Cloud State University, University of MN, and the Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design.

“No matter where a student goes after graduation, their determination to reach this point should be recognized,” said ISMN Head of School John Huber. “This graduation ceremony provides an opportunity for us to come together as a school community and celebrate their many hours of hard work.”

An online public school program of the Brooklyn Center Community School District, ISMN offers students statewide a tuition-free education option for grades 6-12. ISMN offers a supportive online learning community and an individualized approach to meet students at their point of need and to spark a lifelong love of learning.

With virtual classes and live online learning sessions led by state-licensed teachers, ISMN creates a personalized educational experience for students to ensure their success leading up to and after earning their high school diploma.

Details of the graduation ceremony are as follows:
