It's Time to Celebrate the Students! Iowa Virtual Academy Class of 2021 Never Stopped Moving Forward

6/3/2021

GUTTENBERG, Iowa--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- After a school year like no other, Iowa Virtual Academy (IVA), an online public school program of the Clayton Ridge Community School District, will celebrate the Class of 2021 with a virtual commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 5th, 2021.

The commencement will feature Iowa State Senator Amy Sinclair and will celebrate the achievements of 64 students.

Collectively, the Class of 2021 reports it has been accepted to technical schools, colleges, and universities across the country, including Iowa State, University of Iowa, University of Northern Iowa, DMACC, and Hawkeye, Kirkwood, Upper Iowa Community Colleges.

"The Class of 2021 has overcome enormous obstacles as they conclude their high school experience," said IVA Head of School Steven Hoff. "That's why it's more important than ever that we celebrate their graduation. No matter where a student goes after graduation, they should know that our entire community is rooting for their success."

IVA students access a robust online curriculum in the core subjects and a host of electives, and attend live virtual classes taught by state-licensed teachers. IVA also offers student clubs, field trips and social outings to foster a sense of school community, such as this week's graduation celebration.

Details of the graduation ceremony are as follows:
