

Trust a Leader in Online School: Tennessee Virtual Academy Now Accepting Enrollment Applications for the 2021-2022 School Year

2/25/2021

MAYNARDVILLE, Tenn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Tennessee Virtual Academy (TNVA) is now accepting enrollment applications for the 2021-2022 school year. The school—which is a program of Union County, TN Board of Education—offers students in kindergarten through eighth grade a high-quality, personalized learning experience in a dynamic online setting.

Combining online instruction, a rigorous curriculum and the support of state-certified teachers, TNVA gives students the tools they need to succeed.

The school's enrollment season comes at a time when more than 70% of U.S. parents agree that online education should be an ongoing option after the pandemic subsides.

"At TNVA, teachers and staff personalize instruction for each and every student by meeting them where they are academically," said Julie Overholt, Stride's Vice President of Southern Region schools. "Now, more than ever, students and families need a safe, reliable, and rigorous academic option, and that's what a trusted online school like TNVA can deliver."

TNVA students across all grade levels are offered a full course load in the core subjects of English/language arts, math, science, history, art, music and physical education. TNVA teachers facilitate live, interactive online classes, which allow students to enjoy a safe learning environment anywhere with an internet connection.

In addition to scheduled classes, teachers regularly communicate with students and families via phone and email to ensure they are supported and appropriately challenged. Resources are available to help TNVA students and families navigate the online learning experience.

With online school, athletes, students with unique medical needs, advanced learners, and all types of students can balance a full academic load along with extracurricular pursuits or any other specialized needs. Virtual clubs and organizations allow students to further explore shared interests together in an online setting.

Families are encouraged to attend an online information session hosted by the school.
