About K12 Inc.

K12 Inc. (NYSE: LRN), a technology-based education company, is the largest provider of proprietary curriculum and online education programs for students in kindergarten through high school in the U.S. K¹² provides its curriculum and academic services to public and private online schools, traditional classrooms, blended school programs, and directly to families. K¹² also operates the K¹² International Academy™, an accredited, diploma-granting online private school serving students in 59 countries plus the U.S.

Founded in 2000, K¹² has provided over 2 million courses - core subjects, AP^(R), world languages, credit recovery, and electives - to more than 200,000 students worldwide. Over 90 percent of parents surveyed are satisfied with the K¹² program and agree that their children have benefited academically with K¹². Students graduating from K¹² virtual schools have been accepted to hundreds of higher education institutions including many of the nation's top-ranked colleges and universities.

In April 2010, K¹² joined with Middlebury College to form a new venture called Middlebury Interactive Languages to create and distribute innovative online language courses for pre-college students. In July 2010, K¹² acquired KC Distance Learning, Inc., a nationally recognized leader in online learning with brands that provide high quality education products and online school solutions: Aventa Learning™, The Keystone™ School and iQ Academies^(R). In November, K¹² acquired American Education Corporation, a leading provider of instructional and assessment software for kindergarten through adult learners. In the same month, K¹² also announced a strategic investment to acquire a minority interest in Web International English, a leader in English language training for thousands of students in China.

K¹² is accredited through AdvancED, the world's largest education community. More information on K¹² can be found at: www.K12.com
