

K12 Celebrates National School Choice Week 2016

January 25, 2016

Leading online learning provider helping to expand school choice options every year

HERNDON, Va., Jan. 25, 2016 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- K12 Inc., the nation's leading provider of online school programs in kindergarten through high school, is recognizing National School Choice Week (NSCW). National School Choice Week, held this year from January 24-30, is the world's largest annual celebration of opportunity in education.

K12 has been a long-time and proud supporter of NSCW. Its school partners also celebrate NSCW with numerous activities and school events across the country.

K12's Chairman and CEO, Nate Davis, released the following statement:

"America's education system is strengthened as school choice grows. All children deserve equal opportunity and access to schools of their choice regardless of their academic, socioeconomic, or geographic circumstance. This is the bedrock principle of school choice: parents know their children best and should have the freedom to choose the right school for their child.

"K12 is a company of educators. We are committed to putting students first because we know parents are putting their children first every day. Through innovative online and blended school models, we are helping to expand the footprint of school choice across America. These educational options matter, because for many families online schools are the only school choice option available to them.

"All of us at K12 – our thousands of educators, teachers, parents, and children – join together in celebration of National School Choice Week."
