

Virtual Public Schools in South Carolina and Hawaii To Be Served by K12 Inc. Now Accepting Applications for Fall 2008

April 24, 2008

HERNDON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 24, 2008--K12 Inc. (NYSE:LRN) is announcing that student enrollment applications are now being processed by the South Carolina Virtual Charter School for the 2008/09 academic year, based on the approval by the South Carolina Public Charter School District of the school's charter on March 6, 2008. The school intends to use the curriculum, technology and academic services provided by K12.

K12 is also announcing that the student application and enrollment process will begin in the State of Hawaii. On April 17, 2008, a charter was granted to the Hawaii Technology Academy by the Hawaii Charter School Review Panel, which had selected K12 for its curriculum and academic services.
