

K12 Inc. Announces Resignation of John F. Baule

October 16, 2009

HERNDON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 16, 2009-- K12 Inc. (NYSE: LRN) is announcing that John F. Baule, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, will resign from the Company effective October 31, 2009.

"I've enjoyed working for K¹² for the past five years," said Baule. "It's been an honor to be a part of a company that has done, and will continue to do, so much good for children, families and educators. Although this was a difficult decision, I believe it's the right time for me to pursue new professional challenges. K¹² is an outstanding company and I'm confident it will continue to thrive as a leader in the education industry."

Ron Packard, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of K12 Inc., said, "We greatly appreciate John's contributions to K¹² including the role he played in the Company's successful IPO and expansion. In addition, the financial processes and strong team built under John's leadership have served the company well and will continue to serve it well in the future."

Packard added the Company expects to appoint a Chief Financial Officer in the near future.
