

Gregory E. Aliff Elected to New Jersey Resources Board of Directors

May 7, 2019

WALL, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 7, 2019-- New Jersey Resources (NYSE:NJR) today announced that Gregory E. Aliff has been elected to its board of directors. An accomplished executive and author, Mr. Aliff has held a range of senior leadership roles at Deloitte LLP serving clients in the energy and utility industry.

“As a respected leader and strategic advisor with deep industry, financial and regulatory expertise, Greg Aliff is a welcome addition to our board of directors,” said Laurence M. Downes, chairman and CEO of New Jersey Resources. “Greg’s background leading Deloitte’s energy and resources practice and advising Fortune 500 companies on financial and regulatory matters will provide valuable perspective and make him a welcome addition to our board.”

From 1976 to 2015, Mr. Aliff held a variety of leadership and management roles at Deloitte, and served as vice chairman and senior partner where he oversaw the energy and resources practice until his retirement in 2015. He also led Deloitte’s U.S. sustainability practice from 2013-2014. During his career, he has provided a range of professional services to leading energy companies in the areas of accounting and financial reporting, enterprise risk management, regulatory strategy, rate case preparation and acquisition due diligence.

Mr. Aliff co-authored “Accounting for Public Utilities,” a comprehensive utility industry resource on accounting and ratemaking first published in 1983 and updated annually. He has also written a number of publications on trends and changes in the energy and utility industry, and is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and events.

Mr. Aliff serves on the corporate board for California Water Services Group, a publicly-traded water utility holding company, and chairs its Audit Committee. He received his bachelor’s degree and his master’s degree in business administration from Virginia Tech, and is a certified public accountant. He also completed the Executive Education Program at the International Institute for Management Development in Lausanne, Switzerland.
