New York Stock Exchange Approves voxeljet's Plan to Regain Compliance

1/27/2020

FRIEDBERG, Germany--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- voxeljet AG (NYSE: VJET) (the "Company", or "voxeljet"), a leading provider of high-speed, large-format 3D printers and on-demand parts services to industrial and commercial customers, today announced that on January 24, 2020, the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") notified the Company that it has accepted the Company's plan to regain compliance with the NYSE's continued listing standards.

As previously reported by the Company in a Current Report on Form 6-K on August 27, 2019, the Company received a letter from the NYSE on August 23, 2019 stating that voxeljet was below compliance with continued listing standards set forth in Section 802.01B of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual relating to market capitalization and shareholders' equity.

The Company submitted a compliance plan to the NYSE on November 19, 2019 advising how the Company plans to regain compliance with the continued listing standards by February 23, 2021. The Company is subject to periodic review by the NYSE for compliance with the initiatives set forth in the plan. If the Company is not in compliance with the continued listing standards by February 23, 2021, or if it does not make progress consistent with the plan during the plan period, NYSE may initiate delisting proceedings as appropriate. The Company intends to regain compliance with the NYSE continued listing standards by such date; however, there is no assurance the Company will be able to accomplish this.

Cautionary Statement on Forward-Looking Statements
