4.0 STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Company recognizes that Diversity and Inclusion enriches the discussion, debate and facilitates a broader exchange of perspectives, which in turn, will enable innovation, enhance balanced decision making, and improve business performance leading to greater organizational strength.

The greater Diversity of the organization will better reflect the Company's relationships with its customers, employees, shareholders, business partners and other stakeholders and supports sustainability and social responsibility objectives.

The Company will adhere to, respect and appreciate differences in age, ethnicity, Indigenous origin or heritage, gender, physical attributes, beliefs, language, sexual orientation, education, nationality, social background and culture or other personal characteristics. In addition, the Company will respect and appreciate differences in background and life experience, communication styles, interpersonal skills, education, functional expertise and problem-solving skills.

4.1 Board Of Directors

The Charter of the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee ("NCGC") of the Board tasks the NCGC with recommending director candidates for election to the Board and annually evaluating the overall performance of the Board based on merit. Within that overriding emphasis on merit, in seeking to fill Board vacancies the NCGC will consider candidates that bring a diversity of background and industry or related expertise and experience to the Board.

The NCGC will periodically assess the size and composition of the Board and will include in that assessment identifying imbalances and gaps in expertise, experience, skills and backgrounds of its directors in light of the needs of the Board. In assessing Board composition and identifying suitable candidates the NCGC will review the current composition of the Board with a view of ensuring it reflects a diverse mix of knowledge, experience, education, skills, gender, age, ethnicity and geographic location, and with a view to meeting any diversity (including gender diversity) targets adopted by the Board.

Any search firm engaged to assist the Board or a committee of the Board in identifying candidates for appointment to the Board will be specifically directed to include diverse candidates generally, and multiple women candidates in particular.

4.2 Executive Leadership and Management

The Executive Leadership provide the leadership framework and direction for the Company and it is the responsibility of everyone within the Company to sustain a respectful workplace culture that promotes and supports Diversity and Inclusion.

In order to promote Diversity at the Executive Leadership and Management level, the Board and or the Company, where appropriate, will:

- consider candidates for promotion on merit while giving due consideration to the benefits of Diversity and the current composition of management at all levels with respect to Diversity and, in particular, gender diversity;
- actively seek out and review candidates for appointment on merit from a variety of backgrounds, with the Company objectives of Diversity and Inclusion in mind including, in particular, gender diversity;
- direct any search firm engaged to assist in identifying candidates for appointment to Executive Leadership to include diverse candidates generally, and women candidates in particular;

- with a view to promoting diversity within the pool of current employees with the required competence who may be considered for management positions, review periodically Company processes for internal promotion and leadership development.

4.3 Employees

As a global company, we seek to attract and retain talent at all levels from the countries in which we operate and to provide workplaces in which employees from all backgrounds are treated with respect, feel included and are supported to succeed. The Company seeks to build and maintain a respectful workplace culture in which differences are respected and valued, and in which the interests of diverse stakeholders are taken into account in decision-making.

The Company requires that all employees be treated fairly and with respect and dignity as more particularly detailed in the Code of Conduct and Respectful Work Policy and the Company does not tolerate any discrimination, bullying or harassment in the workplace.

The basis for employment, advancement, performance appraisal and remuneration within the Company is based on merit, competence, performance and behaviour in line with Company values.

The Company will strive to promote and educate the global organization on the importance of Diversity and Inclusion and to recognize and respect the heritage, culture, lifestyle and preferences, environment of the local communities which host Company operations.

4.4 Measuring and Reporting
