

Molly Weiss Named Chief Technology Officer and Head of Digital Innovation

SAN ANTONIO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Victory Capital Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: VCTR) (“Victory Capital” or “the Company”) today announced that it has named Molly Weiss as Chief Technology Officer and Head of Digital Innovation. In her new role with Victory Capital, Ms. Weiss will be a member of the Executive Committee and have overall responsibility for the Company’s technology infrastructure, including its artificial intelligence (AI) framework, and data and analytics platform. Additionally, she will lead the Direct Investor Business.

Molly Weiss

Ms. Weiss brings more than two decades of experience in technology, sales and service, product management and operations. She was previously Group President of Wealth Platforms at Envestnet Financial Technology, with a focus on driving product expansion and strategy. During her tenure with the firm, Ms. Weiss also championed the launch of next-generation technology solutions and orchestrated transformative user experience initiatives.

“The rapid evolution of technology and data and analytics is changing the way in which we serve our clients,” said Victory Capital Executive Vice President Tom Sipp. “Molly’s deep expertise in building digital solutions for financial advisors and investors will enable us to further expand our product capabilities and innovate the way in which we engage with clients. We are thrilled to add her to our executive leadership team.”

“Victory Capital has demonstrated a genuine commitment to continually investing in technology and data to better serve clients,” Ms. Weiss said. “I am excited to join an industry leader and innovator and play a role in the Company’s future growth and success.”

Ms. Weiss holds an MBA from Santa Clara University and a BA in Economics from San Francisco State University.
