

2U, INC.

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A. PURPOSE AND POLICY

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) shall be to act on behalf of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of 2U, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), in fulfilling the Board’s oversight responsibilities with respect to (i) the Company’s corporate accounting and financial reporting processes, (ii) the Company’s systems of internal control over financial reporting and audits of financial statements, (iii) the quality and integrity of the Company’s financial statements and reports, (iv) the qualifications, independence and performance of the registered public accounting firm or firms of certified public accountants engaged as the Company’s independent outside auditors for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing audit services (the “Auditors”), (v) the performance of the Company’s internal audit function, and (vi) the Company’s legal, regulatory and ethical compliance programs as established by management and the Board.

The policy of the Committee, in discharging these obligations, shall be to maintain and foster an open avenue of communication among the Committee and the Auditors, the Company’s financial management and the Company’s internal auditors.

B. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of at least three (3) members of the Board. Each member of the Committee shall satisfy (i) the independence requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), (ii) the independence and financial literacy requirements set forth in the listing rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) that are applicable to audit committee members and (iii) any other qualifications determined by the Board. At least one member of the Committee shall qualify as an Audit Committee Financial Expert as defined in Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K. Members of the Committee may only receive director and committee member fees as compensation from the Company. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. Vacancies occurring on the Committee shall be filled by the Board. The Chair of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board or, if the Board does not do so, the Committee members shall elect a Chair by vote of a majority of the full Committee. The Chair (or in their absence, a member designated by the Chair) shall preside at all meetings of the Committee.

C. MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members deem necessary or appropriate, but in no event less than quarterly. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by telephone or by other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. A majority of the Committee’s members shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Committee. All actions of the Committee will require (i) the vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present or (ii) a unanimous written consent of the members of the Committee then serving. Minutes of each meeting of the Committee, and each written consent, shall be prepared and placed in the Company’s minute book.

The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other members and management, may set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter. The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board from time to time regarding the activities of the Committee, or whenever so requested by the Board.

D. AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have authority in its sole discretion to appoint, determine compensation for and, at the Company's expense, retain and oversee the Auditors as set forth in Section 10A(m)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules thereunder and otherwise to fulfill its responsibilities under this Charter.

The Committee may retain any independent counsel, experts or advisors that the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to the Auditors for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services, for payment of compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee and for payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. Each member of the Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge their responsibilities hereunder. The Committee shall have authority to require that any of the Company's personnel, counsel, accountants (including the Auditors) or investment bankers, or any other consultant or advisor to the Company, attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its special, outside legal, accounting or other, advisors or consultants.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees as appropriate.

The approval of this Charter by the Board shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein.

E. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Auditors and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of performing other review or attest services for the Company. The Auditors and each such other registered public accounting firm shall report directly and be accountable to the Committee.

To implement the Committee's purpose and policies, the Committee shall be charged with the duties and responsibilities outlined below. The Committee's functions and procedures should remain flexible to address changing circumstances most effectively. Accordingly, the Committee may supplement and, except as otherwise required by applicable law or the requirements of Nasdaq, deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances.

Responsibilities with Respect to Auditors

1. Evaluation and Retention of Auditors. To evaluate the performance of the Auditors, to assess their qualifications (including their internal quality control procedures and any material issues raised by that firm's most recent internal quality control review or any investigations by regulatory authorities) and to determine whether to retain or terminate the engagement of the existing Auditors or to appoint and engage a different independent registered public accounting firm.

2. Communication Prior to Engagement. Prior to engagement of any prospective Auditors, to review a written disclosure by the prospective Auditors of all relationships between the prospective Auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, and to discuss with the prospective Auditors the potential effects of such relationships on the independence of the prospective Auditors, consistent with Ethics and Independence Rule 3526, Communication with Audit Committees Concerning Independence (“Rule 3526”), of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (the “PCAOB”).

3. Approval of Audit Engagements. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform all proposed audit, review and attest services, including the scope of and plans for the audit, the adequacy of staffing, the compensation to be paid, at the Company’s expense, to the Auditors and the negotiation, on behalf of the Company, of the Auditors’ engagement letters, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

4. Approval of Non-Audit Services. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements (unless in compliance with exceptions available under applicable laws and rules related to immaterial aggregate amounts of services), to perform any proposed permissible non-audit services, including the scope of the service and the compensation to be paid therefor, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

5. Audit Partner Rotation. To monitor the rotation of the partners of the Auditors on the Company’s audit engagement team as required by applicable laws and rules and to consider periodically and, if deemed appropriate, adopt a policy regarding rotation of auditing firms.

6. Auditor Independence. At least annually, consistent with Rule 3526, to receive and review written disclosures from the Auditors delineating all relationships between the Auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, and a statement from the Auditors affirming their independence, to consider and discuss with the Auditors any potential effects of any such relationships on the independence of the Auditors as well as any compensation or services that could affect the Auditors’ objectivity and independence, and to assess and otherwise take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the Auditors.

7. Former Employees of Auditors. To consider and, if deemed appropriate, adopt policies regarding Committee preapproval of employment by the Company of individuals employed or formerly employed by the Auditors and engaged on the Company’s account.

8. Auditor Communications. At least annually, to discuss with the Auditors the matters required to be discussed by PCAOB Auditing Standard 1301.

9. National Office Communications. To review and discuss with the Auditors, as appropriate, communications between the Auditors involved in the audit of the Company’s financial statements and the Auditors’ national office with respect to accounting or auditing issues presented by the engagement.

10. Engagement of Other Registered Public Accounting Firms. To determine and approve engagements of any registered public accounting firm (in addition to the Auditors) prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform any other review or attest service, including the compensation to be paid at the Company's expense to such firm and the negotiation and execution, on behalf of the Company, of such firm's engagement letter, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members, so long as any such preapproval decisions are made, and presented to the full Committee, in accordance with such policies and procedures.

Responsibilities with Respect to Financial Statements and Related Disclosures

11. Audited Financial Statement Review. To review, upon completion of the audit, the financial statements proposed to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K to be filed with the SEC and to recommend to the Board whether such financial statements should be so included.

12. Annual Audit Results. To review with management and the Auditors the results of the annual audit, including the Auditors' assessment of the quality, not just acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and practices, any critical audit matters arising from the current period audit, the Auditors' views about qualitative aspects of the Company's significant accounting practices, the reasonableness of significant judgments and estimates (including material changes in estimates), all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit (other than those the Auditors believe to be trivial), the adequacy of the disclosures in the financial statements and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under the standards of the PCAOB.

13. Quarterly Results. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the results of the Auditors' review of the Company's quarterly financial statements, prior to public disclosure of quarterly financial information, if practicable, or filing with the SEC of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under standards of the PCAOB.

14. Management's Discussion and Analysis. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its periodic reports to be filed with the SEC.

15. Disclosure Committee. To meet with the Disclosure Committee (or a representative thereof), as part of the Committee's regular review of the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q (and other filings by the Company with the SEC), when applicable and as deemed necessary, appropriate or desirable by the Committee or management.

16. Press Releases. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, earnings press releases, and press releases containing information relating to financial information or earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies, which discussions may be general discussions of the type of information to be disclosed or the type of presentation to be made. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for purposes of these discussions.

17. Accounting Principles and Policies. To review with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, significant issues that arise regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentation, including critical accounting policies and practices, alternative accounting policies available under generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") related to material items discussed with management, the potential impact on the Company's financial statements of off-balance sheet arrangements and, as the Committee deems appropriate, any other significant reporting issues and judgments, significant regulatory, legal and accounting initiatives or developments that may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements, compliance programs and policies.

18. Management Cooperation with Audit. To evaluate the cooperation received by the Auditors during their audit, including a review with the Auditors of any significant difficulties encountered during the audit or any restrictions on the scope of their activities or access to required records, data and information, significant disagreements with management whether or not resolved, and management's response, if any.

19. Risk Assessment and Management. To review and discuss with management, the Auditors and the Board, as appropriate, the Company's guidelines and policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management, including risks relating to the Company's accounting matters, financial reporting, data privacy, cybersecurity, and legal and regulatory compliance and the steps taken by management to monitor and control these exposures; and to review and discuss with management, as appropriate, insurance programs, including director and officer insurance, product liability insurance and general liability insurance.

20. Management Letters. To review and discuss with the Auditors and, if appropriate, management, any management or internal control letter issued or, to the extent practicable, proposed to be issued by the Auditors and management's response, if any, to such letter, as well as any additional material written communications between the Auditors and management.

21. Disagreements Between Auditors and Management. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, or any other registered public accounting firm engaged to perform review or attest services, any conflicts or disagreements between management and the Auditors, or such other accounting firm, whether or not resolved, regarding financial reporting, accounting practices or policies or other matters, that individually or in the aggregate could be significant to the Company's financial statements or the Auditors' report, and to resolve any conflicts or disagreements regarding financial reporting.

Responsibilities with Respect to Internal Audit and Internal Control

22. Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. To confer with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, regarding the scope, adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting including (a) significant deficiencies or material weaknesses identified by the Company's Auditors, as well as any special steps adopted in light of significant deficiencies or material weaknesses, if any, and the adequacy of disclosures about changes in internal control over financial reporting, and (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have any significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

23. Internal Audit Function. To coordinate the Board's oversight of the performance of the internal audit function. In this regard, the Committee shall: (a) approve decisions regarding the appointment and removal of the senior internal auditing manager, (b) review any reports to management or the Board from the internal audit department, including the annual internal audit plan, and management's response to such reports, (c) review the charter for the internal audit function annually and approve any changes and (d) determine the appropriateness of the internal audit function's scope and resources.

24. Separate Sessions. Periodically, to meet in separate sessions with the Auditors, the internal auditors or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function, as appropriate, and management to discuss any matters that the Committee, the Auditors, the internal auditors or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function, if applicable, or management believe should be discussed privately with the Committee.

Other Responsibilities

25. Related Person Transactions. To establish a policy for the identification, review, consideration and approval or ratification of transactions involving the Company and any related person, and consistent with such policy, to consider such transactions for approval or ratification. The Committee shall periodically review this policy and recommend any changes to the Board.

26. Spending Authority. To review the Board's delegated authority to Company officers and related spending and transaction authority policies.

27. Correspondence with Regulators. To consider and review with management, the Auditors, outside counsel, as appropriate, and, in the judgment of the Committee, any special counsel, separate accounting firm or other consultants and advisors as the Committee deems appropriate, any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.

28. Complaint Procedures. To establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, and to establish such procedures as the Committee may deem appropriate for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company with respect to any other matters that may be directed to the Committee for review and assessment.

29. Regulatory and Accounting Initiatives. To review with counsel and the Auditors and/or management, as appropriate, any significant regulatory or other legal or accounting initiatives or matters that may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements, or compliance programs and policies if, in the judgment of the Committee, such review is necessary or appropriate.

30. Legal and Ethical Compliance. To review the results of management's efforts to monitor compliance with the Company's programs and policies designed to ensure adherence to applicable laws and rules, as well as to its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

31. Investigations. To oversee the investigation of any matter brought to the attention of the Committee within the scope of its duties if, in the judgment of the Committee, such investigation is necessary or appropriate.

32. Audit Committee Report. To prepare the report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

33. Report to Board. To report to the Board with respect to material issues that arise regarding the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the performance or independence of the Auditors, the performance of the Company's internal audit function, or such other matters as the Committee deems appropriate from time to time or whenever it shall be called upon to do so.

34. Committee Self-Assessment and Charter Review. The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually and shall report the results of such assessment to the Board.

The Committee shall also review and assess the adequacy of this Charter at least annually and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

35. General Authority. To perform such other functions and to have such powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the efficient and lawful discharge of the foregoing.

It shall be the responsibility of management to prepare the Company's financial statements to be included in the Company's SEC filings, and the responsibility of the Auditors to audit those financial statements. These functions shall not be the responsibility of the Committee, nor shall it be the Committee's responsibility to ensure that the financial statements or periodic reports are complete and accurate, conform to GAAP, are free of fraud, or otherwise comply with applicable laws and regulations.

Adopted as of October 19, 2021
