

H.B. Fuller Wins Monetary Relief of Over $14 Million in Arbitration Case Against Accenture

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 11, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- H.B. Fuller Company(NYSE:FUL) announced today that it has been awarded damages in the amount of $12.8 million in its arbitration case against Accenture LLP related to the company's ERP (enterprise resource planning software) implementation in 2014. The arbitrator also ruled that H.B. Fuller did not owe $1.4 million in fees, bringing the total monetary relief to over $14 million.

"While Accenture did not honor its contractual obligations to our company, I am extremely pleased with how our employees responded to the resulting challenges they faced over the course of the project," says Jim Owens, President and CEO, H.B. Fuller. "Today, our business is running well and meeting customer needs, thanks to the extraordinary efforts of our committed employees. I'd also like to thank our customers, suppliers and shareholders for their support throughout this project."

H.B. Fuller is committed to delivering world-class, high-performance adhesive products and services to customers. The company is investing in a state-of-the-art ERP system to help drive quality service to its customers around the world, enabling sustainable, profitable growth.
