

ORBCOMM TO HOST 2011 GLOBAL SOLUTIONS CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK IN CARLSBAD, CA

Company named top 100 technology provider in M2M and connected devices by Connected World magazine

Fort Lee, NJ, October 6, 2011 - ORBCOMM Inc. (Nasdaq: ORBC), a global satellite data communications company focused on two-way Machine-to-Machine (M2M) communications, today announced that it will host the 2011 Global Solutions Conference at the Park Hyatt Aviara in Carlsbad, CA from October 12-14.

ORBCOMM is also pleased to announce that it has been chosen as one of Connected World magazine's 2012 CW 100, a prestigious list of the most innovative technology providers of M2M and connected devices.

ORBCOMM's Global Solutions Conference is an annual event that celebrates the company's growth and leadership in the M2M market, educates its customers and partners about new developments in the ORBCOMM world and encourages collaboration and synergy within the ORBCOMM community. ORBCOMM expects nearly 200 customers, partners, manufacturers, application developers, and executives from more than 15 countries to attend this year's conference, which features the theme, Driving the M2M Revolution.

ORBCOMM will kick-off the conference program with two exciting keynote speakers – Captain James Lovell, NASA legend and commander of Apollo 13, and Elon Musk, high-tech visionary, entrepreneur and CEO of SpaceX and Tesla Motors. The program will include sessions featuring ORBCOMM managed services, dual-mode solution options, an international partners forum, and its new M2M web management portal. ORBCOMM will also provide an update on OG2, ORBCOMM's next generation of satellites that currently are under construction. In addition, there will be a Vendor Showcase where ORBCOMM solution partners will demonstrate their latest products and services utilizing the ORBCOMM network.

This year's conference sponsors include Platinum Sponsor, Quake Global; Gold Sponsors, Digi International and The Morey Corporation; Silver Sponsors, Axeda, Camgian Microsystems, LHP Telematics, MobileNet, Position Logic, Sierra Wireless, StarTrak Information Technologies LLC, and Vodafone; and Media Partner, M2M Now, a blog-led web site for M2M industry experts.

The CW 100 represents the top companies demonstrating market traction and pursuing game-changing technologies in connectivity. The list is determined by the editors of Connected World magazine and designed to provide a snapshot of the leading companies making an impact in M2M.

Companies appearing on the CW 100 are chosen from a selection of hundreds of firms and based on criteria such as sales and earnings growth, contribution to the connected devices space and innovation in multiple markets served during the past 12 months. In addition to ORBCOMM, other companies listed include Google, IBM Corp., Honeywell, Sony, and Verizon Wireless.
