American Society of Civil Engineers' Latest Study Highlights Investment Needs

The U.S.

AWK

Drinking Water: C- Wastewater: D+

Report Card Shows No Progress in Four Years

- EPA determined that the U.S. water infrastructure needs stand at $625 billion over 20 years. That exceeds EPA's 2018 assessment by more than $150 billion.
- In 2024, the wastewater and stormwater annual capital needs were $99 billion, with a funding gap of $69 billion. The funding gap is estimated to grow to more than $690 billion by 2044.

United States' Vast Infrastructure Needs

Water Supply/Treatment, Pipe Replacement, Etc.

- Aging infrastructure, extreme weather events, and costs associated with regulatory compliance place increased strain on the nation's water systems.
- Aging infrastructure is also a leading contributor to water loss. Approximately 33.3 trillion gallons is lost annually, resulting in more than $187 billion in lost revenue.

Aging Pipes, Meters, and Service Lines

AWK Must Continue to Invest in Current Systems

- 54,500 miles of pipe in our footprint; avg. age of 50-60 yrs.
- Methodical replacement of 400-450 miles of pipe/year; decades of pipe replacement needed
- Over the next ten years, we plan to invest $36-37 billion in our systems to help ensure safe, clean, reliable and affordable water and wastewater service.

Acquisition Opportunities Plentiful

Consolidation Promotes Efficiencies, Real Progress

- >50k water systems and >17k wastewater systems in the U.S.; extreme fragmentation and poor state of infrastructure offers opportunity for us to grow
- Acquisition pipeline of more than 1.5 million connections
- Wastewater growth is a natural opportunity; our customer mix is currently 91% water, 9% ww

2025 Earnings and 2025 Earnings Guidance (Non-GAAP) AMERICAN WATER

This information would constitute “non-GAAP financial measures” under SEC rules. They are derived from American Water’s consolidated financial information but not presented in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”). This information supplements American Water’s GAAP disclosures and should be considered in addition to, and not in substitution of, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP. Management believes this information is useful to American Water’s investors because it excludes an item not reflective of its ongoing operating results, and the presentation will allow investors to understand better the operating performance of American Water’s regulated businesses. Although management will use this information internally to evaluate American Water’s results of operations and to facilitate a meaningful year-to-year comparison thereof, management does not intend this information to represent future results as defined by GAAP, and investors should not consider it as such. Lead Service Lines Remain in Focus

Review of U.S. EPA's Lead and Copper Rule Improvements Rule

- On October 8, 2024, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) announced final Lead and Copper Rule Improvements (LCRI).
- The LCRI includes requirements related to (1) achieving lead replacement by the end of 2037, 10 years from the Compliance Date; (2) locating legacy lead pipes; (3) improving tap water sampling; (4) lowering the lead action level; and (5) strengthening protections to reduce exposure.
- American Water consistently meets water quality standards related to the lead and copper rules across our footprint and believes removing the risk of lead service lines over time is the right thing to do for the health and safety of our customers.
- Developing an accurate, comprehensive inventory, including identifying the material of service lines where the material is currently unknown, is an important next step in eliminating lead service lines.
- We believe all stakeholders must understand the costs associated with the proposed improvements to the Lead and Copper Rule and that the EPA estimates are likely understated. The cost to identify the material of all unknown service lines and replace all lead service lines and galvanized lines, where needed, by 2037 will require significant investment for all water systems.
- American Water is in the process of developing an estimate of capital expenditures and operating costs needed to meet the specific requirements of the LCRI. Capital expenditures and operating costs associated with compliance with federal water quality regulations have been traditionally recognized by PUCs as appropriate for inclusion in establishing rates.
