Domo Receives Triple Crown for Being Awarded in All Three 2018 UV50 Categories

SILICON SLOPES, Utah, Oct. 12, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Domo, Inc. (NASDAQ: DOMO), provider of the leading cloud-based operating system for business, today announced that its founder and CEO, Josh James, was named to the Utah Valley BusinessQ's Hall of Fame and earned a Triple Crown award in the 2018 UV50. The Triple Crown recognized Domo being named in all three of the 2018 UV50 categories: Startups to Watch, Fastest-Growing Companies, and Economic Engines. In the BusinessQ's history, only two other companies have received the top distinction of the Triple Crown and only four other Hall of Fame recipients. In total, Domo has received six UV50 Awards.

Utah Valley BusinessQ captures the pulse of the business community in Utah Valley, with the goals of highlighting successful entrepreneurs, long-time businesses and trends in the area, and educating business owners by writing articles that showcase the lessons learned from area business leaders. The UV50 Awards celebrate 50 Utah Valley companies that are excelling in its three categories.

Domo has been recognized extensively in 2018 for its business results and breakthrough platform offering. Its awards so far this year include the Dresner Advisory Services' Wisdom of Crowds@ Industry Excellence Award, a number one ranking in both Dresner's 2018 Collective Insights Market Study and its Cloud Computing and Business Intelligence Study, an overall experience leader and a credibility leader in the Dresner SME Business Intelligence Market Study, the SaaS Awards shortlist, top category vendor in the CRM Market Awards, and Constellation ShortList™ for Cloud-based Business Intelligence and Analytics Platforms and Marketing Analytics Solutions.
